Course Description:

Text: Calculus: One and Several Variables, 10th Edition
Authors: Salas, Hille, Etgen

Outline of Course (tentative):

Week 1 Review of Calculus I
Weeks 2-3 Integration
Week 4 Applications of the Integral
Weeks 5-7 The Transcendental Functions
Weeks 8-9 Techniques of Integration
Week 10 Differential Equations

Grade Distribution:

Homework 10%
Midterm 1 25%
Midterm 2 25%
Final Exam 40%
Homework Policy:
Homework should be neatly written up or typed, and stapled. The grader is free to penalize (within reason) for messy, illegible, or disorganized homework. You may work on homework together, but independently written solutions must be submitted. Homework must be turned in at the beginning of class. Late homework is not accepted. Your worst homework grade (for example if you are unable to turn an assignment in) is dropped.

Midterms:
The first midterm will be during week 4 or 5, and the second midterm will be during week 7 or 8. Make-up midterm exams will be given very rarely and only in cases of serious circumstances. Each midterm is worth 25% of your grade.

Final Exam:
The Final Exam will be on Thursday, December 7 at 10:30am, in Eckhart 203. (According to the registrar, this is subject to change.)

It is the policy of the Department of Mathematics that the following rules apply to final exams in all undergraduate mathematics courses:

1. The final exam must occur at the time and place designated on the College Final Exam Schedule. In particular, no final examinations may be given during the tenth week of the quarter, except in the case of graduating seniors.

2. Instructors are not permitted to excuse students from the scheduled time of the final exam except in the case of an Incomplete.

Message from Student Disability Services:
“If you require any accommodations for this course, as soon as possible please provide your instructor with a copy of your Accommodation Determination Letter (provided to you by the Student Disability Services office) so that you may discuss with him/her how your accommodations may be implemented in this course.

The University of Chicago is committed to ensuring the full participation of all students in its programs. If you have a documented disability (or think you may have a disability) and, as a result, need a reasonable accommodation to participate in class, complete course requirements, or benefit from the University’s programs or services, you are encouraged to contact Student Disability Services as soon as possible. To receive reasonable accommodation, you must be appropriately registered with Student Disability Services. Please contact the office at 773-702-6000/TTY 773-795-1186 or disabilities@uchicago.edu, or visit the website at disabilities.uchicago.edu. Student Disability Services is located at 5501 S. Ellis Avenue.”
