

Frank Calegari

Date of birth: December 15, 1975
Nationality: Australia and USA

Employment

- 2015– Professor, University of Chicago.
- 2012–2015 Professor, Northwestern University.
- 2009–2012 Associate Professor, Northwestern University.
- 2006–2009 Assistant Professor, Northwestern University.
- 2002–2006 Benjamin Peirce Assistant Professor, Harvard University.

Fellowships and Distinctions

- 2013 Fellow of the American Mathematical Society.
- 2009–2011 Sloan Fellowship.
- 2002–2006 American Institute of Mathematics 5-year Fellowship.

University education

- 1998–2002 PhD, University of California, Berkeley.
(advisor: Prof. Ken Ribet)
- 1994–1997 BSc. (Hons), University of Melbourne, Australia.

Visiting positions

- 2010–2011 Von Neumann Fellow, IAS.
- 2011 Distinguished Visiting Professor, University of Sydney.

Editorships

- 2019– Associate Editor, Annals of Math.
- 2019– Editorial board, Algebra & Number Theory.
- 2013– Editorial board, Math. Zeitschrift.

Interests

My research is in the area of algebraic number theory. I am particularly interested in the Langlands programme, especially, the notion of reciprocity linking Galois representations and motives to automorphic forms.